PROJECT PROGRESS AND KEY UPDATES

In October, we began a new phase for the SWITCH project, concentrating on developing leadership, decision-making, and professional growth skills. Participants examined how critical thinking and effective choices contribute to individual and team success, and they reflected on how personal branding enhances confidence and professional identity.

RECENT DECISIONS

The sessions focused on the management and finance of EU programs. Participants learned about the structure of EU funding, project design, and proposal development, emphasizing the importance of sound financial management. Intercultural dialogue was a key theme, with participants comparing decision-making and project-building approaches in various contexts. By the end of October, participants acquired new tools to envision, plan, and manage initiatives with a European focus.
